Rules apply in this area

Please follow the Thanet Coastal Code for shellfish harvesting

thanetcoast.org.uk/factfile/thanet-coastal-codes

- No tools - as these will damage the chalk reef
- Please leave smaller shellfish to grow and reproduce
- Collect only for your own consumption (up to half a bucket)
- The Thanet Coast is part of the North East Kent Marine Protected Area, important for its coastal habitats, marine and bird life

Shellfish is eaten at your own risk and may not be safe for human consumption.

Shellfish must not be sold unless you are a commercial operator with the correct authorisations.
